

LOGOUT SPELLS

A SPELL INTO THE VALLEY OF MUSIC

ZIRO

Six days of music in the land of the Apatanis.

23 TO 29 SEPTEMBER 2026 · GUWAHATI TO GUWAHATI

ZIRO VALLEY · ARUNACHAL PRADESH

Six days. Four festival nights. One gentle valley.
Night trains. Rice fields. Songs that outlast the stages.

Every September the Ziro Valley becomes the gentlest festival ground in India: four days of independent music between rice fields, pine hills and Apatani villages, with the night train north as the opening act.

Some valleys you visit.
This one you sing along with.

LOGOUT SPELLS · TRAVEL A LITTLE DIFFERENTLY

DAY 00 · 23 SEPTEMBER · GUWAHATI

The Night Train

The spell begins on rails. Reach Guwahati by afternoon, rest easy, and let the night train do the travelling while you sleep.

01

REACH GUWAHATI BY AFTERNOON

Arrive at your own pace. A rest house is arranged for freshening up and resting before the journey.

02

10:30 PM · ASSEMBLE AT THE STATION

The circle gathers at Guwahati railway station. Bags stowed, bunks claimed, introductions made.

03

11:30 PM · TRAIN TO NAHARLAGUN

The sleeper rolls north through the night, and the valley gets closer with every hour of sleep.

DAY 01 · 24 SEPTEMBER · NAHARLAGUN TO ZIRO

Welcome to Ziro

Wake up in Arunachal. A morning drive winds into the hills, and by evening you are standing at your first festival stage.

01

7 AM · ARRIVE NAHARLAGUN

Step off the train into the northeast morning. The drive up to Ziro takes about three hours, every bend greener than the last.

02

CHECK IN AT THE CAMPSITE

Settle into your tent, freshen up and have breakfast with panoramic views of the valley.

03

EVENING · FIRST FESTIVAL NOTES

Head to the Ziro Music Festival for your first evening of music between the rice fields.

DAY 02 · 25 SEPTEMBER · ZIRO MUSIC FESTIVAL

Sit Back and Listen

A day with no agenda beyond the music. The valley sets the pace and the stages do the rest.

01 RICE BEER & LOCAL KITCHENS
Try the local cuisine and the traditional rice beer this valley is quietly famous for.

02 FESTIVAL ALL AFTERNOON
Independent music played out between rice fields and pine hills until the light turns gold.

03 EVENING JAM AT CAMP
Back at the campsite, local musicians pick up where the stages left off.

04 STARGAZING
Clear September skies over the quietest festival ground in India. Stay up until your eyes give up first.

DAY 03 · 26 SEPTEMBER · APATANI COUNTRY

Meet the Locals

The morning belongs to the Apatani way of life. The evening belongs, as always, to the music.

01 WALK THE VILLAGE
Wander the local surroundings and step inside a traditional Apatani house.

02 TEA WITH THE RESIDENTS
Share tea and snacks while the valley's people show you what September looks like from their side.

03 FESTIVAL AT YOUR OWN PACE
Head to the grounds whenever you are ready and enjoy the performances.

04 JAM WITH LOCAL SINGERS
The night closes with another session of songs around the campsite.

DAY 04 · 27 SEPTEMBER · THE FINAL FULL DAY

Eat, Sleep, Music, Repeat

The last full day of the festival, and the valley makes sure you remember it.

01

MORNING · TREK TO THE WOODS

A walk into the pines, or music activities back at camp. Your morning, your call.

02

1 PM · INTO THE FESTIVAL

The final day pulls everyone in. Enjoy the performances and party into the night.

03

FINAL NIGHT CELEBRATIONS

Back at the campsite, the kind of last evening people are still talking about on the train home.

DAY 05 · 28 SEPTEMBER · ZIRO TO GUWAHATI

The Long Goodbye

One slow morning, one winding drive, one night train home with a camera roll full of the valley.

01 PHOTOGRAPHS & GOODBYES
Freshen up, have breakfast and spend the morning on farewells to fellow travellers.

02 9 AM · DRIVE TO THE STATION
The circle gathers outside the campsite and winds back down to the railhead.

03 OVERNIGHT TRAIN TO GUWAHATI
Arrive early on the morning of 29 September, in time for onward journeys home.
